Charlie Chaplin
in
"Sunnyside"

Charles Chaplin in "Sunnyside," His Latest Three-Reel Million Dollar Comedy at the Columbia Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday with "Rowdy Ann," a Special Two Reel Farce Comedy.

Charlie Chaplin "expresses himself" little comedian goes into a state of mind in the new acrobatic dances which are coming wherein he sees things. While quite the thing in the most artistic circles they are imaginary to him on the screen—they seem real enough and the sight of Charlie busing the screen picture released by First National, which will be shown at the Colonial, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday surrounded by beautiful young girls in a group of beautiful and scantily draped young girls which are engaged in this sort of dance is Chaplinique.

Such a thing as riding a cow is almost never attempted in the country even by the boy and girl who take the cows out to pasture and bring them back at night. But Charlie attempts this when he tries to induce a cow to leave the church in which the bossy boy has been breaking up meetings.

GEORGE WALSH TRIED IT IN NEVER SAY QUIT AND THE JINK PROFOUNDLY HAD TRUNKS

A WILLIAM FOX COMEDY George Walsh, the Athletic Thunderbolt, in his latest Fox Comedy-Drama "Never Say Quit," at the Exhibit Tomorrow—Mrs. Tom Mix in "A Roma Cowgirl" and Willard Dempsey Fight Slides

George Walsh, the Dynamic William Fox star, will be the headline attraction at the Exhibit Theatre tomorrow in his latest action picture, "Never Say Quit." In this picture Walsh has the role of Reginald Jones, whose Hoodoo was always working overtime, always tagging at his heels, whether he was playing poker, getting married or hunting sunken treasure, and his many unlucky adventures all go to make this an unusually entertaining picture that you'll like. The second attraction on tomorrow's bill will be Tom Mix in a screaming Wm. Fox two reel comedy called "A Roma Cowgirl." In addition to these good pictures we will also show for tomorrow, one day only, 20 slide views of the Willard Dempsey Bout, depicting all the big punches of the fight. These pictures are not moving films, but are 20 still views (slides), the only pictures that it is possible to secure in this state. Best of all, there will be no advance in price for this big program. Come early.

BRYANT WASHBURN
"Poor Bob"
FINELY SUPPORTED
IN "POOR BOB" FILM

Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley and Other Famous Players Are in the Cast

Regular patrons of the photoplays—a class that comprises practically every person in every community, will find an aggregation of familiar players at the Leslie Theatre today and tomorrow, appearing in "Poor Bob," Bryant Washburn's latest Paramount picture. Everyone in the cast of this splendid photoplay, which is adapted from the original stage comedy of rule of refreshing originality which brings out all the whimsical humor of Margaret Mayo, is well known that has made her one of the most adored stars of the screen. The story is that of a young girl, brilliant of youth and mischief, who seems to be courted she looks and not the nineteen she really is. She falls in love but this too, is looked upon by the object of her affections as merely one of her taints.

Leading in support of Mr. Washburn is Wanda Hawley, known every-

B. De Mille, "We Can't Have Everything." She has the role of the plucky stenographer, whose quick wit is mainly responsible for the success of the hero, a young man who is delivered to be a failure, but who comes out on top after all.

Theodore Roberts, probably the best character actor on the screen, plays Platt, the owner of the factory in which the hero works. The role of Wolf, Douglas, a worthless schemer, is handled by Raymond Hatton, whose work in Aircraft pictures is well known.

Mary Thurman, who has appeared hitherto solely in Paramount-Mack-Sennett comedies, essays her first dramatic role in this picture, where she plays the village sweetheart of the leading character. Others in the cast are Dick Rosson, Jay Durgus, Charles Ogle, Guy Oliver and Jane

Theda Bara in "When Men Desire" at The Columbia Tonight Only

Jealousy almost ruins a beautiful love story in "When Men Desire," the William Fox production at the Columbia tonight.

Theda Bara, the star, finds her road to matrimony and happiness beset with obstacles because of the jealousy of one of her unsuccessful lovers.

He sees to it that Miss Bara, as Maria Lohr, is kept apart from her lover at all cost. Being an influential lady in Germany, the rival subjects her to many perils, hoping that she will turn to him at least for aid and comfort.

But Maria Lohr's heart remains true to her American lover, who rescues her at last out of his rival's clutches.

MARGUERITE CLARK in "Uncle Tom's Cabin"

"Uncle Tom's Cabin." A Wonderful Illustration of the Famous Novel with Marguerite Clark as the Star, Will Be At The Strand Tonight

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN," the famous Southern novel by Harriet Beecher Stowe, has been made into pictures with dexterity. Marguerite Clark, portraying the role of Eva and Toper, will be presented at the Strand, to-night.

This is a splendid picturization of the novel which did much to bring the Civil War and which resulted in the emancipation of the slaves. Almost everybody remembers the story of Uncle Tom, the Kentucky slave who is sold and sent South. When on a steamboat on the Mississippi he saves the life of little Eva St. Clair, whose father purchases him as a reward for his bravery. St. Clair sets him free, but his death, which occurs soon after Eva's demise, prevents this, and with dexterity Marguerite Clark portrays the role of Eva and Toper, will be presented at the Strand, to-night.

D. W. Griffith's Aircraft Production, "The Greatest Thing in Life," To be Presented at the Temple Tonight

If you had just one wish—what would you ask for if the gods decreed that the one thing you wanted you could have? You'd want the greatest thing in life, wouldn't you? Well what is the greatest thing in life? Victory? Money? Love? The Distinguished Service Cross? The sight of home at the end of the war? Or is it—the glorious thing that an uncared-for American youth found in France in the middle of battle, the thing that brought him all that's really worth while? Is it that? D. W. Griffith has that answer for you in his famous production, "The Greatest Thing in Life," which is at the Temple tonight. Lillian Gish and Robert Harron are in it, and the great creator of "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," "Hearts of the World" and "The Great Love," with his magic has woven around them a motion picture story that takes its place among the photoplay masterpieces that will live forever. You cannot afford to miss this great spectacle, so be on hand tonight.

At The Arcana Tonight

Tonight's program like yesterday consists of two two-reelers. One of the two features is another thrilling and exciting chapter of "The Silent Mystery," the Universal serial by Francis Ford. Ford has produced several great serials but "The Silent Mystery" is the best yet. "Silent Drama" is the title of chapter ten showing tonight. Fatty Arbuckle and his ever funny friend Al St. John are the laugh producers in "The Walker's Ball."

Skipped To Canton

IRONTON, July 30.—The body of Nick Camme, the Italian who was shot last Sunday by Tony Leno at the Bowmen home in Coal Grove was shipped yesterday afternoon to Canton for burial accompanied by Nick Camme Sr., father of the deceased and two brothers who arrived in Ironton yesterday to accompany the remains to Canton. The first news the Camme family had of their son and brother's tragedy was what they read in the Canton papers. The article stated that he was in a hospital and immediately upon learning this they came to Ironton hoping to find the man alive. They were not told of his death until they were at a local undertaking establishment where the body has been prepared for shipment.

Viola Dana in a New Metro Comedy Romance "Diana Jr." Adapted From The Popular Book "Diana Ardway" at The Exhibit Tonight

Viola Dana, charming girl of the screen will be the first run attraction at the Exhibit Theatre tonight in her latest Metro comedy "Diana Jr." adapted from the popular book "Diana Ardway" by Van Zo Post. Miss Dana will be seen in the rôle of Diana Ardway, the girl who seems to be the center of all the whimsical humor of Margaret Mayo, is well known that has made her one of the most adored stars of the screen. The story is that of a young girl, brilliant of youth and mischief, who seems to be courted she looks and not the nineteen she really is. She falls in love but this too, is looked upon by the object of her affections as merely one of her taints.

Teasing pranks. Realizing this she determines to make him suffer for his misunderstanding and visits all her capricious and feminine moods on him in a manner truly Readish. The play gives the silvery little star unbounded opportunities for mischievous comedy and is a story of dancing joy—fresh with the fragrance of youth and sweet with the springtime melody of young love. You'll like Miss Dana and this clever picture better than anything you've seen for a long time. Antonio Moreno will also be here in another installment of the big show play "Perils of Thunder Moon."

RACE RIOT

Frank O. Lowden could not order the soldiers to take charge, although with the arrival today of two more regiments, 8,000 well armed men were resting on their arms. While the state soldiers completed two days work of polishing bayonets and filling cartridge clips, the death list mounted to 26. An incorrect police report last night had sent it higher, but investigation showed that no one man who sought to search him for weapons at Fifteenth and State streets.

In other instances whites and blacks clashed each other with knives, shot from ambush or ran down isolated members of the other race and beat them into insensibility. There was some looting of abandoned residences and stores in the south side black belt and a number of small fires were ascribed to incendiaries.

The ninth regiment, from the southern part of the state and the tenth from central Illinois rushed toward Chicago today to add their rifles and machine guns to the potential army already here.

SPREAD OVER CITY

The police struggled vainly to clear the rioters from the south side negro quarter and early last night apparently surrendered, only to find that the mob spirit had spread to other sections. On the west side whites attacked negroes, and in one case partly burned the corpse of a victim with gasoline. On the north side fighting proceeded for several hours and in the residential districts, known as Woodlawn and Englewood, on the far south, fierce fighting took place.

As the overworked police dashed to these quarters, several miles from the center of the war, the smoldering flames of anarchy burst forth anew in the black belt. A patrol wagon crashed into an automobile filled with men and mobile trash and race fight at 35th and State streets. The authenticated deaths in last night's fighting were two, both negroes. One was killed in the Italian district of the west side and Ira Henry, 46, was shot dead when he wounded one of two police officers who sought to search him for weapons at Fifteenth and State streets.

prices and conditions seem to be plentiful.

To start the third day of warfare, Patrolman Walter Bellman was probably fatally shot by a negro whom he was searching in a vacant lot. As Bellman fell, his partner John Kean, shot the negro dead. During the night 15 other policemen were hit by bullets and one or two died. According to police figures, 15 negroes and 12 whites have been killed since the rioting began.

NEGROES LAID OFF

Nearly 1,500 negro employees of the city were laid off by official order, owing to the riots. Many of the negroes were employed in street repair work. By official order nine municipal playgrounds in six adjacent to the racial war zone were closed. Not more than five percent of the negro clerks, inspectors and janitors employed at the city hall, reported for work and the greater number of those who did appear were told to go home and stay there until further notice. At the garbage reduction plant only the whites, about one-fourth of the usual force, appeared for work and at the city's asphalt plant there was an entire absence of men, all the employees being negroes. All city work in the second and third wards parts of each being in the "black belt," has been suspended.

Negro chauffeurs, clerks and carriers at the post office were assured the fullest protection by Postmaster Carlile, under whose jurisdiction are several hundred negroes.

Coroner Hoffman announced today that he had impaneled a jury to investigate all deaths resulting from the riots.

TOUCH IS APPLIED

Police reports today stated that during the spasmodic fighting of the night the torch had been applied to 11 houses in the west end of the "black belt." In each instance firemen and policemen had prevented any serious injury to individuals or property.

State Attorney Hoyne announced that the August grand jury will investigate the race riots and attempt to fix responsibility for the outbreaks. Adjutant General Dickson after making a tour of the danger zone early today, reported the situation much improved compared with yesterday. One more victim was added to the toll of deaths caused by injuries received in the race riots.

Berger Odman, white, 21 years old, an employee of the Chicago Telephone Company, was shot in the abdomen in a fight with negroes last night, dying this morning.

MAY NEED NEW LAWS

Besides declaring that it may be found necessary to establish a state department of food control, Governor Cox said it may be found necessary to enact new laws under which the public may be better protected from food profiteers, and also that it may be found necessary to alter the state constitution so such laws may be enacted. In either case the governor declared that the sooner the necessity for such is discovered, the better it will be.

Attorney General Price also called upon private citizens to furnish officials with all evidence of unlawful manipulation of food which may come to their notice. He called attention of the prosecutors to the anti-trust laws of the state as well as the cold storage act.

"If conditions are disclosed which will justify resorting to these laws, there should be no hesitancy in doing so," he said.

COX'S ADDRESS

Governor Cox, in his address to county prosecutors, said:

"The objective in your labors must be facts which touch the whole food situation. They cannot be ascertained easily. If the conditions are as we believe them to be, it will be a contest between you and certain elements of evil genius, but if you will carefully diagnose the situation about you and make your effort a sustained one, carrying with it the resolution to play no favorites, you will be enabled to give to the state an understanding of just what circumstances have brought about the present crisis. If we find that in the commercial relations between men the lust for gain is satisfied by artfully created privilege, then the common law must be invoked to bring it to an end. If the law is insufficient, the quicker we know it, the

"GUERRILLA WARFARE

Owing to the street car strike the comparatively few white rioters in the total population could not so handily get together last night, and no large mob invaded the black belt. It was mostly guerrilla warfare, but exceedingly bitter. In some cases men would be hidden along a boulevard and fire on passing cars occupied by members of the opposite race. In others, a few whites would assault a building, occupied by negroes in the midst of a negro neighborhood, dragging forth a victim to a brutal beating.

The car strike also helped the negroes as a favorite form of attack on the first night of disorders was to enter a street car and drag a negro from the vehicle to the street where he was maimed or killed.

The police have collected a veritable arsenal of weapons since the rioting began. Every hour a score or more of negroes are hustled into police stations and relieved of revolvers, daggers and razors. But despite their vigilance,

FOOD QUESTION COMPLEX
"The food question of today is more complex than it has ever been before. The shifting of population from the country to the city has brought about a vast congestion in centers where most, even though usefully employed, are entirely dependent upon others for the food supply. It may be that governmental invention is a necessity. Progress in the arts follows a new call on utilities that were sufficient in the past. We have many governmental departments—the judicial, educational, industrial, agricultural—but no single unit has been established for the control of food. The time may have come when conditions will be vastly improved by creating such an organization in every country, and have it tied into a directing head attached to the state government."

CAN BE APPLIED TO WHEAT
"While we have no disposition to enter the problems that are purely unimportant, we are confronted hourly with the obvious fact that as the price of steel is the vital factor in industrial prices, wheat exercises the same dominance in the cost of foodstuffs. In closing up the fiscal accounts of the war, the government will be compelled to sacrifice machinery and plants amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars. It is the short-cut of common sense, and will yield an ultimate economy. Why shouldn't the same thing be done with the vast supply of wheat? The first cost to the government is not a part of the calculation now in the industrial process of salvaging. The same reasoning can be applied to wheat. The contract with the grower should be kept in good faith, but the supply should be held at a price which would give us the pre-war five-cent loaf of bread."

"This will cost a great deal of money, but every dollar expended will bring two dollars worth of helpful results."

If you buy a tire here, another there, you cannot expect uniform tire mileage and service.

Making Firestone Gray Side-wall Tires standard for your car means you can forget the tire question. And after that decision, the renewal question will come up far less frequently.

You can easily prove this by equipping with Firestones now.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, marriage, troubles, woes, etc., etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please answer my question? I am a man 23 years old, and have crossed the sea four times and been almost around the world and I never found that one woman I loved and she is 22 years old. Sometimes I think she loves me and at times I think she doesn't. We have talked about getting married although we have only known each other about six months. If you were me what would you do to win her love and make her love me as I do her and that is with my whole heart. Do you think it time to settle down? I also served 6 years with the army, 2 years in France.

R. P.

Do you know how to play devotions without being terribly tiresome? To be jolly and serious and funny without being obnoxious? To inspire her with respect as you protect her and yet make her believe that you are utterly hopeless without her? Some job, and with it all if she doesn't happen to be the right girl for you, all your art in these various branches will be in vain.

You're pretty young yet, she may think, she is too young to know her own mind. Perhaps she fears your roaming disposition will keep you away from her after you are married. You must give her confidence in the future. Don't force her decision. Six months is not very long and by the end of a year you will be better able to decide on what is the best course. By

COUNTRY LASSIE.

Probably the boy has not been trained to observe these little niceties. If you and he are good friends, do not drop him for such a slight cause. You are the best judge as to whether he is a good chap at heart and if he is it would be too bad to give up his friendship. Do not lecture him on the subject, but let him see that you expect these polite little attentions. For instance, if you drop some article call his attention to the fact and with a smile request him to pick it up. After a few times he will realize this is expected of him, and not forget.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell us who received the $5 for naming the play at the Casino and what the name was? Who received the "Victory" which was to be given away by the Central Labor Council Fourth of July week? What use has the War Chest put the people's money of Scioto county to? Don't you think they should give an account of this money? We know what good the Salvation Army has done for our boys, so why did our War Chest refuse to give Home Service Campaign help like other cities did? X. T. Z.

Chester Wallace, Third street, won the $5 prize for naming the play at the Casino. The name was "The Idler." The Victoria has not yet been awarded. The War Chest was the "bank" of all local war activities. The Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the X. W. G. A., Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus and Jewish Welfare, all were supported by the War Chest. Our war chest contributed to the Community House at Chillicothe also. The Red Cross does for the city are paid up for next year from the war chest over $10,000 having been turned over to the Red Cross for this purpose.

The funds of the War Chest were pledged only for war work or for work with service men. That is why all reconstruction work of the post-war program does not come under the war chest rating. War Chests in other cities perhaps did not have this provision in their rules.

G. H.

Rub a little vaseline into it and brush it well.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you kindly advise me what to do for my hair? When I had "du" it fell out very badly. Now it has started growing back, has stopped falling out, but seems to be very dry and lifeless.

X. T. Z.

Simple Operations Fitted Together

The business of Swift & Company is the fitting together of many simple operations.

No one thing in a packing business is particularly difficult for men trained to do it; but no one thing is enough.

Thousands of other operations, properly performed, are necessary for the completed processes. And some one must fit together all these thousands of simple operations.

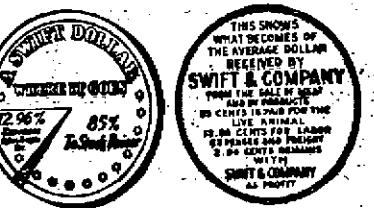

The success with which a packing business performs its function of supplying the best possible meat products to the consumer with the greatest possible benefit to both him and the producer depends upon the energy, brains, experience, and faithfulness of the men trained in the business.

Swift & Company turns the producer's live stock into meat for the consumer at a profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound, because it fits these operations together with the least waste, overlapping, and friction.

Do you believe government direction could do it better?

Let us send you a "Swift Dollar". It will interest you.

The Free Lance Writer and His Troubles

The free lance writer may be doomed to disappointment. To prove this I will tell a story, and have the records to show, verifying its truth. One day about sixteen years ago I mailed two jingles to Lippincott's magazine. One was accepted at a good price, the other rejected—not only by Lippincott's, but by dozens of other magazines since, and this will be its first appearance in print—if the Times doesn't turn it down.

Which was accepted?

Any person giving the right answer will receive the Kaop one year free. The one guessing wrong should subscribe but will not be obliged to do so. The query will be answered in our August number. The jingles appear below. Which is the worse of the two?

Examiner's Report On Mayor's Office Continued

The following is the 10th installment of the examiner's report concerning the affairs of the Mayor's office. Other installments will appear in the Times from day to day.

As previously stated we were unable to find the above names on the docket of any record of the disposition of the charges against such defendants. In explanation of such a condition the clerk stated that he was of the opinion that the defendants either had been dismissed without record or else the names set forth on the arrest reports were not sufficiently definite to be used on the dockets under his name of defendants. However, if the latter assumption is correct, the clerk was unable to identify the real names from the docket entries. We are of the opinion that through negligence there was a failure to do just such cases. How many more there may have been of a similar character we are unable to state as we only made comparison of such cases wherein the "arrest reports" indicated that money was taken from prisoners of time of arrest or bond was filed for appearance, and then only for the nine months ending September 30, 1918, as all previous "arrest reports" had been destroyed thus barring such investigation.

It might be well to note in this connection that in all instances where fictitious names were given and the real name is subsequently determined the name being docketed in the latter name, the docket entry should always show the "alias" or fictitious name, such as entry being necessary for proper identification of the case. The name on the "arrest report" if it is fictitious, should be entered in the docket with the real name. Further, there should be a judicial disposition of all charges filed, and a record should be made of such cases whether the prisoner is subsequently dismissed or not. When a charge is filed it becomes a matter of public record and the prisoner is entitled to a public record showing the ultimate disposition of such charge, and this is especially true if it is ascertained that the charge is unfounded—under such circumstances the defendant is deserving of the fullest exculpation for the injury that may have been done him and no less can be done than to properly record the reason for the dismissal of the charge.

There should be no failure to record every case coming before the mayor's court and negligence in this respect can not be tolerated.

COSTS PAID MAYOR AND CHIEF OF POLICE UNDER PROVISIONS OF SECTION 2010, GENERAL CODE

The records of the county auditor disclose that there were no costs paid to the mayor and chief of police March 1, 1917—September 30, 1918, by virtue of the provisions of Section 2010, General Code. The records, however, indicate that there was paid the mayor $37.45 February 12, 1917, and $100.00 October 25, 1918, and that there was paid the chief of police $44.85 February 12, 1917.

In making out cost bills under Section 2010, General Code, there should only be certified costs in felony cases wherein the state failed to convict, and no costs in misdemeanor cases wherein the defendants proved innocent. No costs should be certified in felony cases until final disposition is made of said cases in the courts, and if conviction is not secured in the courts then the costs should be certified under Section 2010, General Code, but if conviction is secured the costs will be paid under Section 2010, General Code.

CHIEF'S COSTS IN STATE CASES

May 8, 1917, the Appellate Court of Cuyahoga County held that owing to the inequality of the law fixing the fees of the chief of police in state cases, it was impossible of enforcement, hence no costs could be assessed on behalf of the chief in state cases in police courts, the same applying with equal force to mayor's courts. In September, 1917, the Bureau of Inspection and Super-

W. boys tied up the count. Wells was tossed out by Valodin, but Weinberg delivered one of his famous line drives through Valodin. He was forced by Keyser, who came home on Vaughters' lengthy swat to right for three sacks. Whereupon Jackson fanned.

In the fourth the railroadmen won the game. Goods led off with a double-jointed blow to left. Wells fisted to James and Weinberg lofted to Baughman. Keyser singled to left. Vaughters clapped a daisy blow to middle and Jackson doubled to left. Four runs resulting, added and abetted by a bopple on the part of Cooper at short, after Baughman went in.

In the fifth Timmes first up doubled to left. Goodale was safe on Valodin's error and Cooper erred on Wells' tap. The squeeze play was pulled by Welby. Timmes scoring. Keyser singled through Valodin. Goods and Wells registering. Vaughters fanned and Jackson rolled to Denton. In the sixth the railroadmen added three more after changes had been offered to retire the side. Wykoff rolled to Frizzell and Applegate fanned. Timmes rolled to Valodin who fanned and Jackson rolled to Denton. In the seventh the railroadmen added three more after changes had been offered to retire the side. Goodale, Welby and Wells singled in succession, three runs coming in. The score:

THE BAROMETER RISES

THE iron and steel markets showed strength all last week. Perhaps this was caused by the more free placing of orders and an advance in prices. Two motor companies, one known to be the Ford and the other assumed to be the Wyllis-Overland, placed orders for 300,000 tons of bars, sheets, tubes and cold-rolled steel. Pig iron selling was fairly active and general shipments exceeded production, though some plants were reported to be holding back receiving iron owing to pending labor troubles.

The outside markets, though, seem to feel no uneasiness over the labor situation and stock dealing, at advancing quotations, was the rule. There is a tendency too among the larger mills to discount possibilities of serious disturbances among their working forces. Wages have been made at maximum scale with selling prices going down and it is not thought a stiffening market will cause immediate demand for wage increase.

YES, CONGRESS FAVORS IT, BUT—

ONE of the most annoying war acts put upon the statute books is known as the zone law. This is a provision in the postal regulations which makes newspapers and periodicals pay a postage rate according to the distance they are carried and the amount of advertising they print.

Note know today what they will have to pay tomorrow. A copy of each issue has to be sent to the post office and checked up, measured for reading and advertising, so that the rate may be fixed.

The zone rate is a contradiction to the basic principle of mail carrying: the same charge for the same weight any distance, though the same rule is laid down for parcels post.

Ever since it was established the publishing interests have warned vigorously and viciously upon it and the postal administration, being especially wrathful against Postmaster General Burleson, as the author. The humor about this is that General Burleson did not recommend the zone rate to congress, as a matter of fact opposing its adoption, but that it came as a suggestion from a postoffice commission, of which Charles Hughes, Republican candidate for president, was chairman, and it is thought he was the chief proponent of it.

The merits of the plan, however, are in no wise affected to by the author of it, assumed or real. The present congress, most persistently attacked, by publishers supporting the majority, professes to be in favor of its repeal, but precious little consolation appears in that since profession is accompanied by the qualification that there is no possibility of action this session, as congress must devote all its gigantic intellect to repealing the one cent tax on ice cream cones and devising another somewhere else to make up the deficit that will be punched in government income.

HAS MARCHING ORDERS

RAH! RAH! strange, when one analyzes it that the order of the peace council that Bela Kuhn must go and await not the order of his going, should be received with such popular acclaim.

Everybody has heard about Bela Kuhn, but mighty few know anything about him. Shortly after Anatras so ignominiously collapsed, he appeared out of the stress and disorder thereby precipitated, separated Hungary into an independent nation and being one of three ministers of a new government, new in rule and radically new in character, became its spirit and power. At least that is the way that all alleged news referred to him, inciting revolution, war, peace and murder to him and to him solely.

Everything said about him and nothing by words defamatory were used in describing his activities, was believed to be true. Mostly because people like to believe evil of another, and may be partially because of his name. Bela Kuhn has a ferocious sound, something like Ghengis Kahn, the Turk, who swept over southern Europe slaying and slaughtering all alike, running the streams red with blood and choking them with the bodies of his victims.

There is no disposition to set up any defense for Bela. He is bad, probably, and may be worse than he is painted, but he has got some good qualities. For instance, courage and sincerity. Frankly he admits his government isn't what a majority of the Hungarian people want, but he is putting it over on them because he and his few followers are more active and have the nerve and so they are giving the inert mass what Bela Kuhn thinks they ought to have and not what they want.

Which being the case makes it all right for the Allies and all right for us to approve them—they have got the nerve and power and so Bela must go because they want him to go.

RACE RIOTING SPREADS TO ALL PARTS OF CHICAGO

Death List Increases To Twenty-Six

CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—Bitter fighting between whites and negroes spread last night to all parts of Chicago, the serious casualties being more numerous than at any similar period in the racial war. The city authorities made no call for troops and in the absence of such request, Governor Frank O. Lowden did not order the soldiers to take charge, although with the arrival today of two more regiments, 5,000 well armed men were ready on their arms.

While the state soldiers completed the days work of polishing bayonets and filling cartridge clips, the death toll mounted to 26. An incorrect police report last night had sent it higher. An investigation showed that no one had been killed in a spectacular automobile crash and race fight at 35th and State streets. The unauthenticated deaths in last night's fighting were two both negroes. One was killed in the Italian district of the west side and Ira Henry, 40, was shot dead when he wounded one of two police who sought to search him for weapons at Fifteenth and State streets.

In other instances whites and blacks clashed each other with knives, shot from ambush, or ran down isolated members of the other race, and beat them into insensibility. There was some looting of abandoned residences and stores in the south side black belt and a number of small fires were set to incendiarism.

The ninth regiment, from the southern part of the state, and the tenth from central Illinois rushed toward Chicago today to add their rifles and machine guns to the potential army already here.

SPRINGFIELD CITY. The police struggled vainly to clear the rioters from the south side negro quarter and early last night apparently succeeded, only to find that the mob spirit had spread to other regions. On the west side whites attacked negroes, and in one case partly burned the corpse of a victim with gasoline. On the north side fighting proceeded for several hours and in the residential districts, known as Woodlawn and Englewood, on the far south, fierce fighting took place.

As the overworked police dashed to these quarters, several miles from the center of the war, the smoldering flames of anarchy burst forth anew in the black belt. A patrol wagon crashed into an automobile filled with men, the fight followed that caused the probable fatal injury of three men, the wounding of several others. The second-

AUSTRIA GRANTED MORE TIME BY ALLIES

PARIS, July 30.—The inter-allied supreme council decided today to appoint a permanent commission to coordinate and interpret the "German peace treaty." The commission will be composed of five members representing the five great powers.

The commission will have its headquarters in Paris but is empowered to convoke elsewhere if necessary. It will sit after ratification of the treaty.

The members will have diplomatic standing and will be aided by a staff of technical advisors.

The Earl of Derby, British ambassador to France, was announced to-day as Great Britain's representative.

Austria has been granted seven additional days for consideration of the peace terms. August 6th will be the final day on which the Austrian representatives may submit inquiries. This was decided upon by the supreme council today.

The council also decided to ignore Von Bismarck-Holteker's request to stand trial for the former emperor.

A commission of experts will be named to apportion control of the rolling stock of the German-Austrian and Bulgarian railways. The economic clauses of the Bulgarian treaty which is now virtually complete excepting definition of the boundaries of Bulgaria were approved.

NO EXTRA DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, July 30.—The United States Steel Corporation at its quarterly meeting today failed to declare an extra dividend on its common stock. Similar action was taken at the quarterly meeting in April. Six months ago a disbursement of one percent was declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1.14 percent on the common and 1.34 percent on the preferred stocks.

Total earnings for the quarter ending June 30 were $84,351,201 as compared with $83,513,324 in the previous three months.

The total net income was $23,824,106 as compared with $22,571,429. The surplus totaled $3,203,557, as compared with $4,822,316 at the close of the previous quarter.

NO FUNDS

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Because of a lack of funds with which to pay them, employees of the navy yards over the country were dismissed in large numbers this fiscal year. Assistant Secretary Roosevelt announced today that the present combined force of 33,000 would be cut to 50,000 or 65,000 before next July 15.

ACCEPTS PROCEDURE

PARIS, July 30.—Baron Kurt von Leister, chief of the German peace delegation, has sent a letter to the peace conference accepting the procedure proposed by the allies for the transfer by Germany to Poland of the districts attributed to Poland by the peace treaty.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 30.—Stocks derived much of their strength at the onset of today's trading from the favorable quarterly statement issued by the United States Steel Corporation after the close of yesterday's session. The initial transaction in United States Steel comprised a block of 4,200 shares at an advance of virtually 1 point. Related issues were 1 to almost 2 points higher with oil and metals and tobacco supplemented yesterday's gains. There was an active inquiry for rails, steel and Texas and Pacific displaying especial activity.

Johnson Fined

Arnold Johnson, former proprietor of the famous Blue Goose school near Pikelton, was convicted in police court last night on a charge of assaulting Mand Wright at her home on Tenth street Saturday night, and Mayor Kene assessed a fine of $5 and costs.

Hungarian Soviet Is Ready To Quit

BASILE, July 30.—The Hungarian government is badly shaken by the defeat of the Red army according to reports from Vienna. As a consequence the opening of parliaments has been requested of the entente for the voluntary withdrawal of the Soviet government and the formation of a new government. Col. Cunningham, representing the allies, has forwarded the proposal through Paris.

BERLIN, July 30.—The Hungarian people's commissaries visited Col. Cunningham, the allied representative at Budapest today, according to the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger and proposed negotiations for the peaceful resignation of the Soviet and the formation of a new government. The proposal was said to have been forwarded to the supreme council at Paris.

GENEVA, July 30.—Alexander Garibaldi, president of the Hungarian Soviet government, killed himself in the as-ssembly building at Budapest after delivering a speech against the Soviet and communists supporters and accusing Béla Kun, the Soviet leader, and minister of foreign affairs of basing the nation to ruin, according to the Monitor Nachrichten. Mr. Garibaldi until recently was reported one of the strongest supporters of the Soviet government but it is said he was said to have opposed József Rákosi. He was quoted as stating he realized the futility of the government cause and its danger to the country.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Strike-bound

Chicago found hope of relief in the announcement today that chiefs of the service and elevated men's unions planned a referendum vote of the entire union membership to determine whether the strike vote taken at last Friday night's mass meeting should be sustained. The union membership is 15,000; the attendance at the meeting where the strike vote passed over protest of the leaders was 6,000. It was stated that another 24 hours may pass before the referendum can be completed.

Every railroad entering the city brought into use its empty passenger equipment and ran many additional trains to accommodate the suburban population.

RESUMES HIS TALK WITH SENATORS

WASHINGTON, July 30.—With both the senate and the foreign relations committee in recess, interest in the peace treaty shifted again today to the White House, where President Wilson had arranged to resume his talks with Republican senators.

Four Republicans were on the president's appointment list, including Senator Harding, of Ohio, member of the foreign relations committee, and Senators Dillingham, Vermont; Ferguson, Maine, and Jenison, Wisconsin. For tomorrow the president had invited Senator New, Indiana, another foreign relations member, and Senators Watson, Indiana, and Keyes, New Hampshire.

GOVERNOR TO URGE SPEEDY ACTION IN THE FOOD COST INVESTIGATION IN OHIO

House Requests Baker Sell All Surplus Food

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Early action was as reported out by the majority of the war investigating committee.

It was adopted by a vote of 266 to 4, after an all day debate, during which a minority report, offered as a substitute by Democratic members of the committee, was voted down. The substitute provided that the war secretary be requested to put on the market such part of the surplus food as was reasonably capable of being distributed and sold, and further providing for a sales organization at government expense.

The debate was bitterly partisan and Republican speakers assailed the policy of the war department in failing to sooner put the food on the market. It was charged the department waited until the packers to prevent a drop in food prices. Democrats denied these charges with the statement that had Secretary Baker investigated, the market prices would have broken with a resultant panic.

The house resolution, adopted yesterday, the house resolution, adopted yesterday, requests Secretary Baker to place on sale without delay surplus supplies held by the war department and valued at 120,000,000 dollars. Except for one amendment, off-hand, by Representative Kelly, of Pennsylvania, and directing that the food be distributed through the parcel post, the resolution was as reported out by the majority of the war investigating committee.

Necessity for immediate and decisive action is expected to be urged by Attorney General Price as a result of scores of letters received during the last few days from individuals in all parts of the state, the tone of which is "revolution" unless something is done immediately to lower the price of food. Some of the letters speak highly of the "revolution" probabilities, while others strongly hint at it. Governor Cox, it is believed, may have something to say on this subject.

DETROIT MICH., July 30.—Operations of the big packing companies and other concerns dealing in food stuffs are to be investigated by Attorney General Alex J. In making this announcement today, Mr. Groveswick stated that if investigation showed any combines violating the state laws, an effort will be made to bar them from doing business in the state.

NELSONVILLE, O., July 30.—Mrs. Tony Stravitz and seven children were burned or asphyxiated at their home at Nelsonville, several hours before the children

No Effort Made To Run Cars In Chicago

COLUMBUS, O., July 30.—

Governor Cox is expected to urge speedy action in Ohio's food cost probe at the conference of county prosecuting attorneys with Attorney General Price in the hall of the house of representatives at 2 o'clock this afternoon when plans for launching the state-wide probe into county grain jury investigations will be laid.

Communications from the county prosecutors received by the attorney general indicate they are ready to cooperate to the fullest extent and are anxious to get into the fight. It is expected that every county prosecutor will be present or represented by one of his principal assistants.

One result of the conference is expected to be a request that the federal government as well as all other states enter into the fight, in order to make the price of national staple and th-atellite all avenues of escape for those who may be responsible for present conditions.

Through a request for concerted state and federal action may be made, this will not lessen the scope of the probe to be made in Ohio by state and county officials. It is said. On the other hand, by cooperation, it will only serve to make the task of Ohio's officials more easy and far reaching.

It will, "hit 'em at 'Revolution'."

The conference is expected to bring out just what laws are available for prosecutions within the state and constitute offenses under these laws.

It will also serve to direct the inquiry in one general channel instead of each separate county attempting to cover its investigation alone. This is peculiar to that county. That different places will appear in various counties is expected, but in general the investigation will probably be along one general line, it is said.

Necessity for immediate and decisive action is expected to be urged by Attorney General Price as a result of scores of letters received during the last few days from individuals in all parts of the state. The tone of which is "revolution" unless something

July 29—Solvay vs Excelsior.
July 31—N. and W. vs Drews.
Aug. 1—Steel Plant vs Solvay.
Aug. 2—Excelsior vs Solvay.

Those renovated, revived and reinvigorated railroad lads, composed of car knackers, brakemen, engineers, firemen and flagmen, put quite a rousing in the pent-up aspirations of the Solvays, last night at the Seventeenth street yards when they gave the leaders an unmerciful lambasting by the score of 11 to 3, due in the main to the blundering ability of the fifth players, coupled with the effective of Silas Jim Wykoff, who if flattened out would resemble in stature at least his eminent catcher, that well-known citizen, John Weinig, Esq.

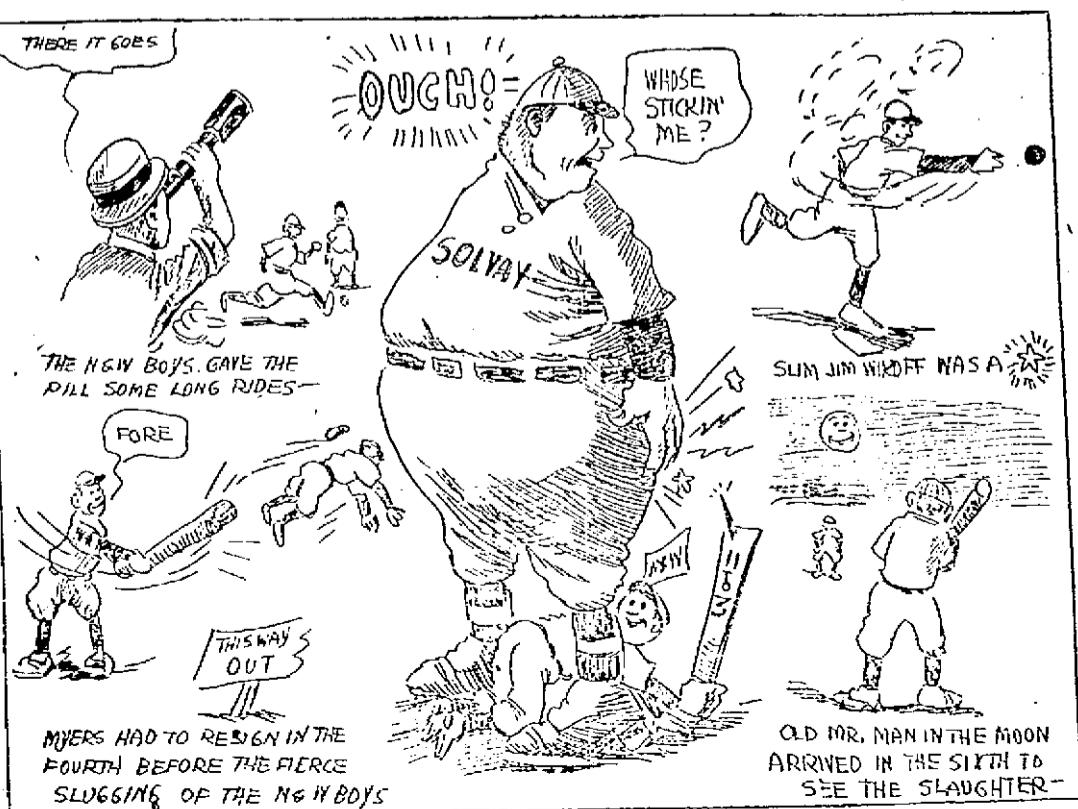

The crowd was the largest of the season, numbering at least 2,000, and possibly more, and the game, while a surprise package, was captured by the N. & W. because they completely outplayed their adversaries at every turn in the road. The visitors, who presented a different hue, put up a game that had it been emulated from the opening of the season would have placed the N. & W. at the top, or blamed near it.

First, the N. & W. boys had installed considerable confidence in their backs due to the hitting they administered to the Steel Plant larks a few evenings ago. And that victory still John Weinig so full of pep and vigor and vinegar that he again donned the manager's cap and went behind the net, catching a bally good game and hitting like the days he was looked upon as the class of all O. S. J. receivers.

Meyers started for the Solvays, but he did not finish. In fact, he was knocked out as clean as Dempsey defeated to Jesse Willard on Independence Day. He seemed to possess plenty of speed and had all his curves working, but nothing he sent plateward seemed to baffle the N. & W. boys and they stamped his offerings gallily west and crooked. When he got more than he bargained for "Doc" Baumhamer went to the mound and his support went all to pieces. It must be admitted that "Doc" was hit with considerable freedom, but this was due to the fact he had no chance to warm up. When he did get up, he was the same puzzle as well for the N. & W. lads that the star left-hander did not start the game.

The N. & W. boys had more pep than they have exhibited all season. They were as lively as crackets and did not make the slightest fielding mistake. They gave Wykoff real backing and encouraged him to his best efforts. He never struck a better game and until the seventh inning had allowed but four hits and one run. Jim is as big of heart as he is full of frame and he cased up in the seventh fearing the batsman might not be able to see his smoke and he might be arrested for manslaughter. A walk, the only one he issued, coupled with a double by Meyers and a hot-scotch single from the bat of Ward sent two runs across. The Solvays had made one run in the opening inning on Cope's single and Benton's two-pitch shot to left which he tried to stretch into a triple. He was nated at the third sack on a perfect check by Wells, the real star player of the crew outside.

DAYTON MIDDLEWEIGHT TO BOX HERE

Kenfe Maley of Dayton, O., is making great headway in the middleweight division, in this part of the country, and recently defeated Billy Ross of Cincinnati. Maley is to box six rounds with a local lad, whose name will be made known in a few days.

This show is to take place at Millbrook Park, in the near future. There will also be another bout arranged, which will be announced in a few days.

DEMPSEY MAY FIGHT IN NEW ORLEANS

CHICAGO, July 30.—Jack Dempsey, heavy-weight champion of the world, will meet the winner of the Georges Carpentier-Joe Beckett match in New Orleans some time this winter. This, of course, if the winner will accept Dominick Tortorich's offer.

Dempsey wants to fight the winner, and will cross the pond if necessary.

REDS MAY GRAB PIRATE HURLER

Manager Moran of the Reds has opened negotiations with the Pittsburgh management for the services of Pitcher Erskine Mayer, a cousin of Mr.

There is no question but what Mayer would make good in a Redland kingdom.

Reds Lost Golden Chance

The Reds had a great chance to take the lead in the National League yesterday. Had they won both games from Boston the trick would have been turned as the beat the Giants could do was to have a double bill with the Pirates.

It looked like a clinch for the Giants in the second game but the Pirates fell on Benton in the closing innings and pulled one out of the fire.

Governor Cox To See Reds And Giants Play

CINCINNATI, July 30.—No less a personage than Governor Cox will witness the Saturday battle between the Reds and the Giants. A telegram stating the governor would be among those present at Redland Field on that day was received Tuesday at the offices of the Cincinnati club.

May Get Outfielder

It is rumored in baseball circles in Cincinnati that Manager Moran has a deal on for one of the out-fielders with the Indianapolis Sprots.

The player in question has lots of experience and Moran feels that he would be a big help to his club.

THE BAROMETER RISES

THE iron and steel markets showed strength all last week. Perhaps this was caused by the more free placing of orders and an advance in prices. Two major companies, one known to be the Ford and the other assumed to be the Wyliss Overland, placed orders for $300,000 tons of bars, sheets, tubes and cold-rolled steel. Pig iron selling was fairly active and general shipments exceeded production, though some plats were reported to be holding back receiving iron owing to pending labor troubles.

The outside markets, though, seem to feel no uneasiness over the labor situation and stock dealing at advancing quotations was the rule. There is a tendency too among the larger mills to discount possibilities of serious disturbances among their working forces. Wages have been made at maximum scale with selling prices going down and it is not thought a stiffening market will cause immediate demand for wage increase.

YES, CONGRESS FAVORS IT, BUT—

ONE of the most annoying war acts put upon the statute books is known as the zone law. This is a provision in the postal regulations which makes newspapers and periodicals pay postage rate according to the distance they are carried and the amount of advertising they print.

None know today what they will have to pay tomorrow. A copy of each issue has to be sent to the post office and checked up, measured for reading and advertising, so that the rate may be fixed.

The zone rate is a contradiction to the basic principle of mail carrying, the same charge for the same weight any distance, though the same rule is laid down for parcels post.

Ever since it was established the publishing interests have warred vigorously and viciously upon it and the postal administration, being especially wrathful against Postmaster General Burleson, as the author. The humor about this is that General Burleson did not recommend the zone rate to congress, as a matter of fact opposing its adoption, but that it came as a suggestion from a post office commission, of which Charles Hughes, Republican candidate for president, was chairman, and it is thought he was the chief proponent of it.

The merits of the plan, however, are in no wise affected by the author of it, assumed or real. The present congress, most persistently attacked, by publishers supporting the majority, professes to be in favor of its repeal, but precious little consolation appears in that since profession is accompanied by the qualification that there is no possibility of action this session, as congress must devote all its gigantic intellect to repealing the one cent tax on ice cream cones and devising another somewhere else to make up the deficit that will be punched in government income.

HAS MARCHING ORDERS

RATHER strange, when one analyzes it that the order of the peace council that Bela Kuhn must go and await not the order of his going, should be received with such popular acclaim.

Everybody has heard about Bela Kuhn, but mighty few know anything about him. Shortly after Austria so ignominiously collapsed he appeared out of the stress and disorder thereby precipitated, separated Hungary into an independent nation and being one of three ministers of a new government, new in rule and radically new in character, became its spirit and power. At least that is the way that all alleged news referred to him, ascribing revolution, war, pestilence and murder to him and to him solely.

Everything said about him and nothing by words defamatory were used in describing his activities, was believed to be true. Mostly because people like to believe evil of another, and may be partially because of his name, Bela Kuhn has a ferocious sound, something like Ghengis Kahn, the Turk, who swept over southern Europe slaying and slaughtering all alike, running the streams red with blood and choking them with the bodies of his victims.

There is no disposition to set up any defense for Bela. He is bad, probably, and may be worse than he is painted, but he has got some good qualities. For instance, courage and sincerity. Frankly he admits his government isn't what a majority of the Hungarian people want, but he is putting it over on them because he and his few followers are more active and have the nerve and so they are giving the inert mass what Bela Kuhn thinks they ought to have and not what they want.

Which being the case makes it all right for the Allies and all right for us to approve them—they have got the nerve and power and so Bela must go because they want him to go.

POLLY AND HER PALS

FIRST ONE THING THEN—NOTHING

HE state and the nation are raising another helluhloo about the high cost of living and as usual they begin with food products as though they were no other immoderate prices elsewhere than there.

That isn't a correct position and promises little. Food is high because everything else is; everything else isn't high because food is. There is a common law of demand and supply working to a general end, or result. The things we eat are no more acutely responding to this law than a thousand of other articles of use, necessities and luxuries. We lay more stress upon the advance of food stuffs because we buy them oftener, daily, and having to pay more each time the market or grocer is visited makes it most annoying.

It might help to bear this infliction, as it is so unexceptionally regarded, if it be constantly borne in mind that more than half the civilized world is hungry, a big portion of it for years near the starvation point. These hunger-stricken peoples are cleaning up the markets, price is little considered if only something can be got to fill stomachs, long empty. Besides this millions of men are yet under arms, which means storage and waste. We must look to the world resuming its regular production and to demobilization, the disbanding of armies before we are likely to see any sharp decline in the cost of living, considering that as applied solely to the things we eat. The written law can not effectively cope with the natural law of existence. That is the reason why state and nation will accomplish little.

THE WISHING PLANE

BY WILLIS WINTER

I said I'd tell you today who Prince Pat married. Well, the man was an officer in the navy. His name was Alexander Ramsey. He didn't have any title, such as prince or duke. He was on one of the battle-ships that had the dangerous task of keeping the German navy from getting out into the sea and destroying the allies' boats, sinking supplies and drowning thousands of American and other soldiers on their way to France.

He fell in love with the princess for the first time he saw her, but of course didn't think then that a princess would marry him, because he wasn't at court. But Princess Pat fell in love with him, too, and when the navy finally dared to tell her how he loved her, she told him that the fact that he did not have a title didn't make any difference at all.

There were lots of things the princess thought she would have to give up, too, when she became his wife. According to the customs followed in the king's court, only titled English folks can sit at the king's table at great receptions and such affairs. This meant that the princess and her husband would have to sit at some other table of the banquets. There were a lot of other things like that which would sound funny if I told them. But the princess didn't mind all these things. They were married in Westminster Abbey. And then what do you suppose happened? Well, I'll have to tell you, because you never could guess. Just a little while after the wedding somebody discovered that years and years ago, in her husband's family, there had been a title which had been completely forgotten. When the title was traced down to the present time it was found that the man she had married belonged to a royal family, too, and that the princess wouldn't have to give up court affairs or anything.

When Luddiepeck finished telling the children the story, Jane said:

"Why, it sounds just like fairy tales of prettresses mother used to read to us." Jack agreed, with her. And I know you have read just such stories, too.

Both children hoped that they would see the princess before leaving England.

"Maybe you will see the King and Queen and Princess Mary and the princes, too," said Laddiepeck.

When Jack and Jane saw the Tower of London, and Laddiepeck told them how kings and other folk who had done wrong were locked in the tower and later put to death, they fairly shivered. "I don't want to go in," said Jane, and while Jack would not say so, he was just as glad they didn't enter the tower.

During their trip that day the children came to one of the railroad stations and saw the English trains for the first time. The cars in which the passengers rode were funny looking boxes, both thought. They remembered that in the cars on the railroads at home there were seats along each side, and that the passengers could see each other. But these cars were divided into little rooms. Each room held four people. Each room had a separate door.

In the next few days the children saw all of the other sights of London and wrote big bulky letters home about what they saw.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 30.—

On a green gray roof.

We sat together.

Under a green pergola.

At a little green table.

Palms and potted plants.

And running vines.

Had raised this oak.

Far down below roared Broadway.

And the high spirit.

Of money mad commercialism.

But there we were.

Under soft shaded lights.

With subdued music.

And the clinking of ice.

In long slender glasses.

And it was the hour.

Of silver-like dusk.

And far in the west.

Was the dying sun.

An arch of pulsing splendor.

Spanning the misty sky.

And a pair of young lovers.

Came and sat near us.

And soon we could see them.

Holding hands under the table.

And we were carried back.

To the little home town.

With its shaded streets.

And evening church bells.

And chirp of crickets.

And the soft padding.

Of the old ferry boat.

On its last trip of the day.

And then down Broadway.

Came a new rainbow.

Of electric light bulbs.

Brilliant yellow.

Vivid orange.

Sapphire blue and ruby red.

Emerald green.

And royal purple.

Blending in a Joseph's coat.

Of many colors.

And they flashed the names.

Of Oshkosh Garters.

And Kickless Drunks.

And things like that.

Ad nauseam.

And our bubble burst.

And we gave forth a sigh.

Paid Jess James our check.

And went on home.

To our electric fan.

And flea bitten dog.
